Competition Type
Individual orienteering competition with two-day overall results in prolonged middle and middle courses (available in Foot-O and MTB-O).

Parking – in the vicinity of Event Centre, 100–500 m from the Event Centre. Bus parking will be located 1.6 km from the Event Centre, by the Nemunaitis–the Giant Stone of Dzūkija road.
A one-off parking fee of 2 EUR per car will be charged and will cover both days.

In the event of adverse weather conditions preventing safe access to the designated parking areas, cars will be parked along the Nemunaitis–the Giant Stone of Dzūkija road. In this case, the distance from parking to the Event Centre will be between 500 m and 2 km.

Entering the forest south of the Event Centre, as well as the areas marked as forbidden, is prohibited until the end of the second day of the competition. Warm-up is permitted only on the roads and tracks north of the Event Centre.

The Event Centre will have toilets, hot food and coffee for purchase, and sports equipment shops.

A designated area will be provided for club tents.

Competition Map and Terrain
Noškūnai Forest, map prepared in 2026. Map author – S. Kireilis.
Scale 1: 7 500 for groups M/V 8-12 and M/V 55+.
Other groups - 1: 10 000. Contour interval 2,5 m.
MTB-O scale 1: 15 000, contour interval 5m.
In September 2026, the qualification races for the European Orienteering Championships have taken place in this area. A coniferous forest, with good and medium runnability. Terrain: the Nemunas River slope features fairly large landforms of up to 40 m, gradually transitioning into a gently rising surface dissected by various medium-sized and small features. The elevation difference from the Nemunas River up to the highest hilltops exceeds 100 meters. The network of roads, clearings and paths is medium dense.

Awards

The Lithuanian Cup winners are determined by the two-day overall results and are awarded with special prism-shaped commemorative trophies. The top three competitors in each class (1–3 places) receive sponsors' prizes, which are presented in person to athletes attending the prize-giving ceremony.

The winners of the Elite groups will be awarded valuable vouchers from the sponsor Stokker.

All M/V 8 groups participants who complete the course will receive a small prize.

MV10-14N and Open groups participants are not awarded.

Other information

- Participants are responsible for their own health and safety during the competition; for school students, responsibility lies with their coaches or accompanying persons. All participants must have had a health check.
- The costs of meals, accommodation, and travel for athletes and coaches are covered by the sending organization or by the athletes themselves.
- Any claims or appeals to the competition jury or organizers must be submitted within 1 hour after the participant finishes, but in any case, as soon as possible.
- By registering, competition participants agree that their name, surname, year of birth, team, and results will be published on the competition registration website <http://www.dbsportas.lt>, and that they may be photographed, filmed, and their location tracked in real-time during the event. This material may be used for event publicity and the promotion of sports. Participants may contact the LOSF administration regarding the use of personal data in accordance with the current LOSF privacy policy.
